ARTICULATION POINTS
(MAKHARIJ)

What are articulation points?

Articulation point is the place from where a letter is pronounced, making its sound different from the sound of other letters.

There are 5 articulation points

Empty mouth

The throat

The nose

The tongue

The lips

POINT OF ARTICULATION: MAKHARIJ

Type

Maddah Letters

These letters are pronounced from the hollow portion of the mouth

Letters

POINT OF ARTICULATION: MAKHARIJ

Type

Tongue Letters

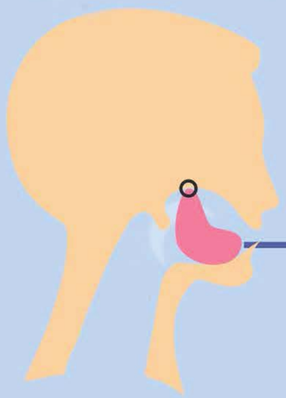

Letters

ق

The deep part of tongue, when returned to touch the soft palate, produces Qaaf

ك

Place the deep part of the tongue against the soft palate, then release it with a slight explosion of air to produce kaaf

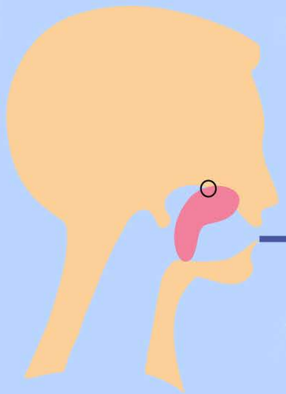

POINT OF ARTICULATION: MAKHARIJ

Type

Tongue Letters

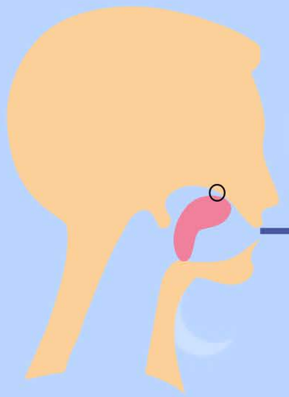

Letters

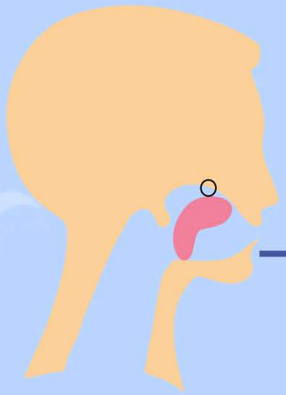

Raising the tongue against the hard palate, produces Jeem

ج

Raising the tongue towards the hard palate, produces Sheen

ش

Raising the tongue to the roof of the mouth, produces Yaa

ی

POINT OF ARTICULATION: MAKHARIJ

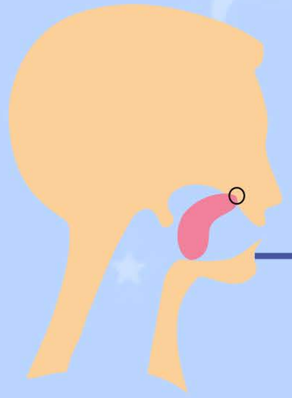

Type

Tongue Letters

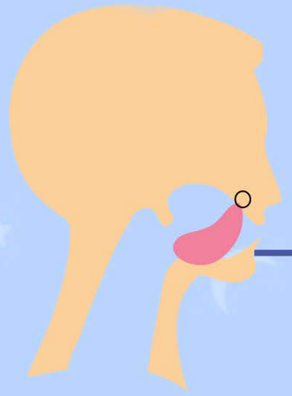

Letters

ض

Side edge of tongue when touching upper molars, produces Duaad

ل

Tongue near tip touching gum of upper incisors, produces Laam

POINT OF ARTICULATION: MAKHARIJ

Type

Tongue Letters

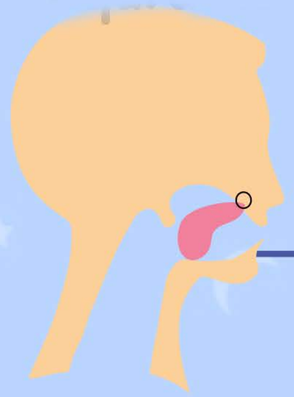

Letters

ن

Pressing the tip of the tongue against the hard palate, just behind the two front incisors, produces Noon

ر

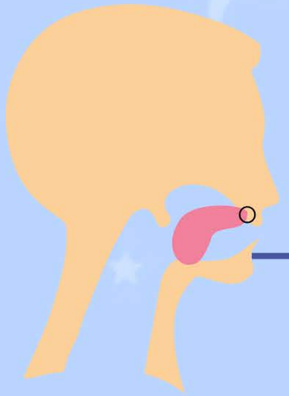

Pressing the tip of the tongue against the hard palate, produces Raa

POINT OF ARTICULATION: MAKHARIJ

Type

Tongue Letters

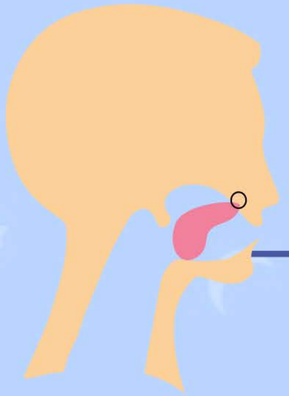

Letters

ت د ط

Tip of tongue touching upper incisors, produces Taa, Daal and Tuaa

ث ذ ظ

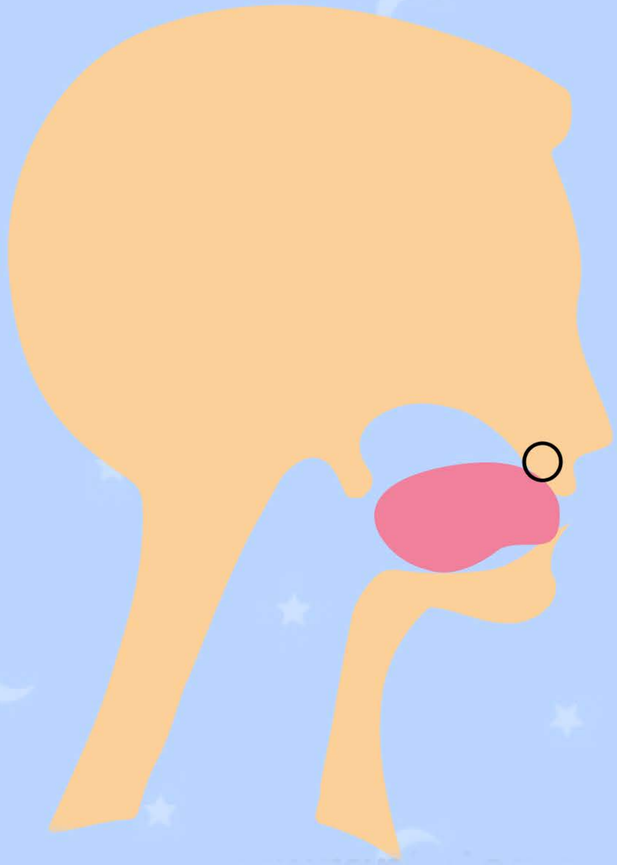

Tip of the tongue touches the edges of the top two teeth, produces Saa, Zaal and Zuaa

POINT OF ARTICULATION: MAKHARIJ

Type

Tongue Letters

Letters

س

ص

The edges of the top and lower front teeth close together and the tip of the tongue comes near them, produces Seen, Zaa and Suaad

POINT OF ARTICULATION: MAKHARIJ

Type

Lip Letters

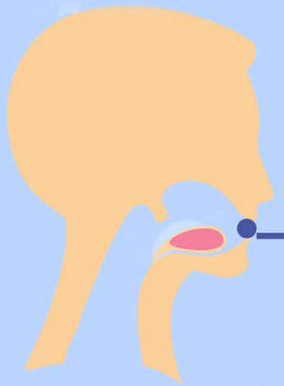

Letters

ب

Baa comes out by closing wet part of your lips together softly and then open lips for 'aa' sound.

م

Meem comes out when you close dry part of the lips together, then open to make a 'ee' sound and then join lips again.

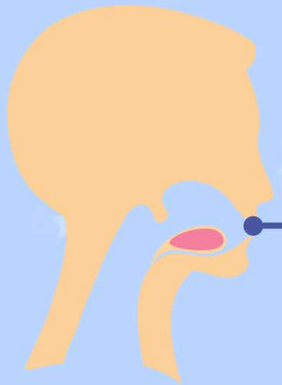

POINT OF ARTICULATION: MAKHARIJ

Type

Lip Letters

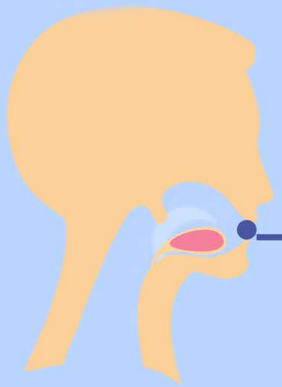

Letters

Wao comes out by rounding your lips together.

Faa comes out when your upper front teeth touches, the inside wet part of your lower lip.

POINT OF ARTICULATION: MAKHARIJ

Type

Nasal Letters

Letters

Pressing the tip of the tongue against the hard palate, just behind the two front incisors, produces Noon. A Ghunnah comes through the nasal passage as well to complete the sound

Pressing the two lips together and passing a Ghunnah through the nasal passage produces the letter Meem

LETS DISCUSS HEAVY LETTERS

(MUSTALIA LETTERS)

What are heavy letters?

The heaviness or lightness of a letter is determined by the amount of air that is exhaled when pronouncing it.
Heavy letters are pronounced with a full mouth.

LESSON 1

How many heavy letters are there?

There are 8 heavy letters.

LESSON 1

ر HAS TWO CONDITIONS

رَ رُ is heavy when it has a dummah or fathah.

رِ is light when it has a kasrah.

"Let's start our Third Lesson"

Our third lesson is about Movements/Harakaat

What are Movements/Harakaat?

The Harakaat which literally means "motions" are the short vowel marks.

LESSON 3

THERE ARE 3 MOVEMENTS

FATHAH
(ـَـ)
KASRAH
(ـِـ)
DUMMAH
(ـُـ)

LESSON 3

LET'S DISCUSS FATHAH (ـَ)

The Fatha is a small diagonal line placed above a letter and represents a short /a/.

The word Fatha itself means "opening" and refers to the opening of the mouth when any letter with this mark/sign.

Example :

جَ = Ja

تَ = Ta

بَ = Ba

Sound of Fathah is /a/

LESSON 3

FATHAH (ـَـ)

أَ هَ عَ حَ غَ

سَ زَ ظَ ذَ

ثَ فَ وَ بَ مَ

LESSON 3

LET'S DISCUSS KASRAH (ـِ)

- A similar diagonal line below a letter is called a Kasrah and refers to a short /e/.

The word kasrah literally means "breaking"

Example :

بِ = Be

تِ = Te

ثِ = Se

Sound of Kasrah is /e/

LESSON 3

KASRAH (ـِـ)

غِ	عِ	حِ	هِ	ءِ
جِ	كِ	قِ	خِ

سِ زِ ظِ ذِ

ثِ فِ وِ بِ مِ

LESSON 3

LET'S DISCUSS DUMMAH (ُ)

The Dummah is a small curl-like diacritic/mark placed above a letter to represent a short /ou/.

Sound of Dummah is /ou/

Example :

بُ = Bu

تُ = Tu

ثُ = Su

LESSON 3

"Let's start our Fourth Lesson"

Our fourth lesson is about Tanween

What is Tanween?

The word tanween literally means marginalize/pushing aside, but usually translated as "nunation", "to 'n'", or "'n'ing"; making an "n" sound.

Tanween is indicated by doubling the short vowel at the end of the word.

LESSON 4

FATHATAIN (ً)

KASRATAIN (ٍ)

DUMMATAIN (ٌ)

THERE ARE 3 TANWEEN

LESSON 4

LET'S DISCUSS FATHATAIN (ً)

Fathatain is the slanted double dash symbol above the letter.

Example :

بً = Ban

تً = Tan

جً = Jan

Sound of Fathatain is /an/

LESSON 4

FATHATAIN (ً)

LESSON 4

LET'S DISCUSS KASRATAIN (ِ)

Kasratain is the slanted double dash symbol below the letter.

Example :

بٍ = Bin

تٍ = Tin

جٍ = Jin

Sound of Kasratain is /in/

LESSON 4

KASRATAIN (ٍ)

"Let's start our Sixth Lesson"

Our sixth lesson is about Long Vowels

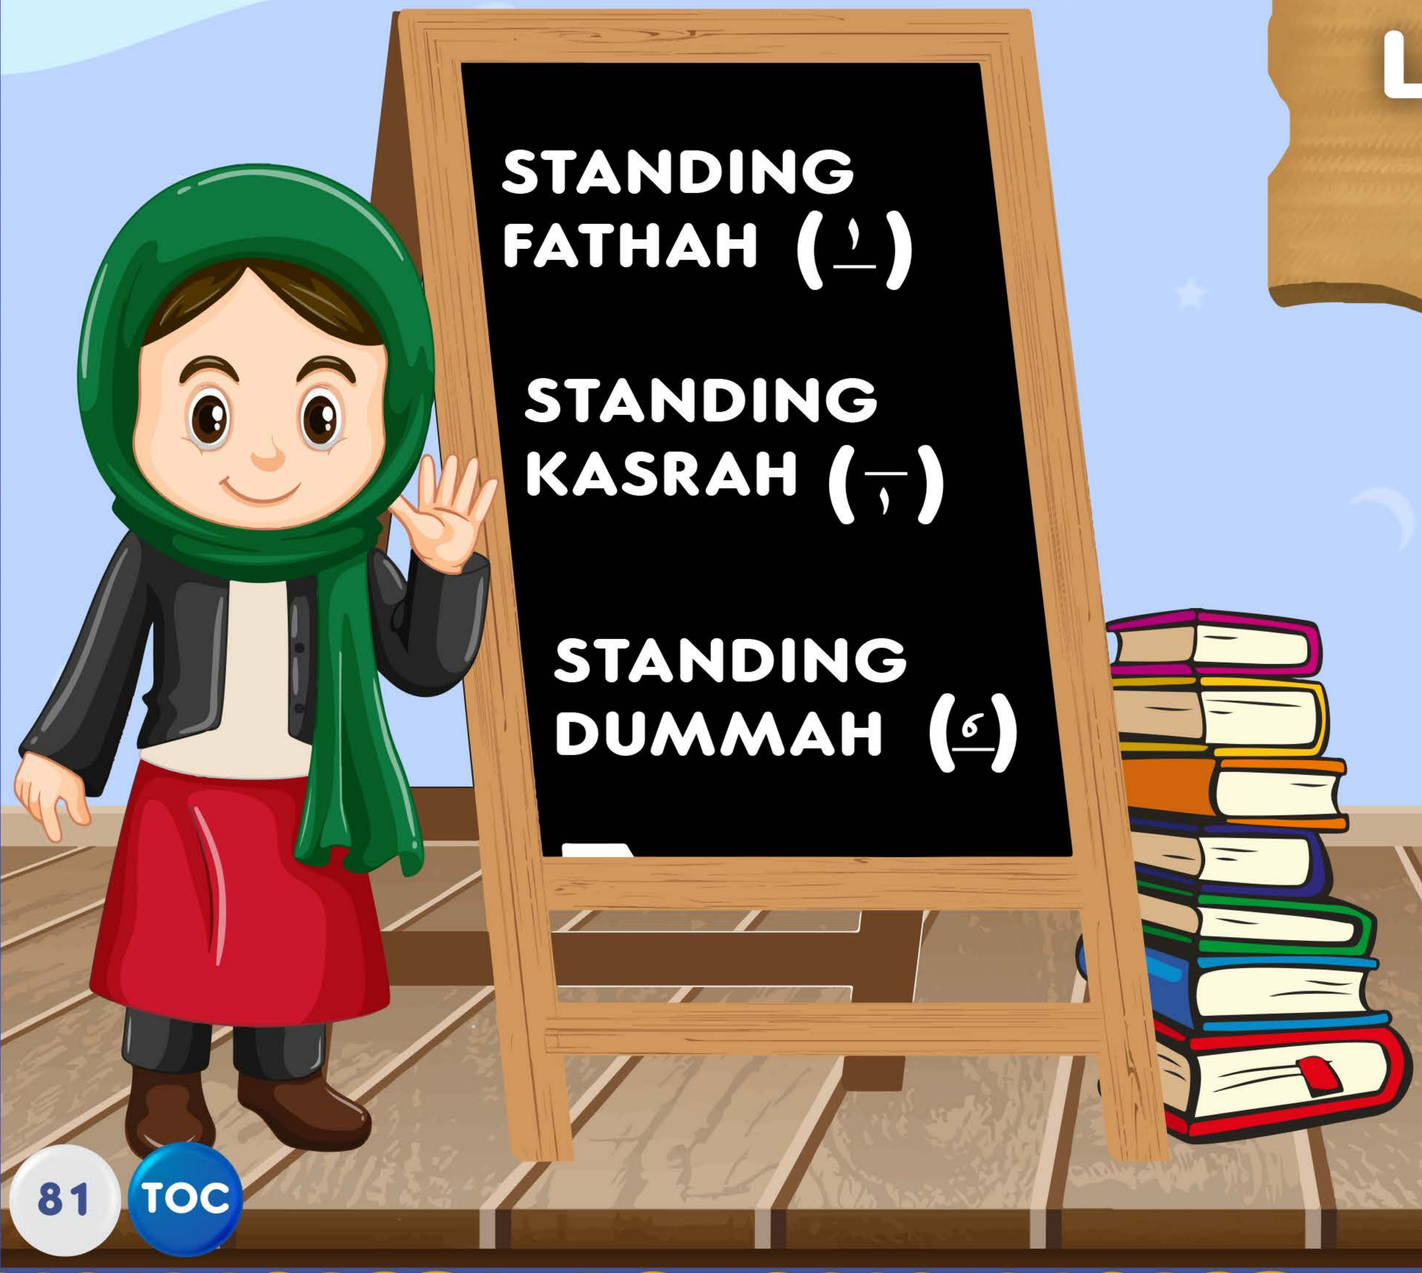

Long vowels in Arabic double the sounds of short vowels.

Long Arabic vowels produce sounds of double a (aa), double e (ee), and double u (uu).

They simply lengthen the sounds of short vowels.

LESSON 6

STANDING FATHAH (ـَـ)
STANDING KASRAH (ـِـ)
STANDING DUMMAH (ـُـ)

THERE ARE 3 LONG VOWELS

LESSON 6

LET'S DISCUSS STANDING FATHAH (ا)

The first of the long vowels is the standing fathah.

The difference between standing fathah and the regular fathah is that, it is stretched a second longer but has the same "A" sound.

A standing fathah is an upright line drawn on top of the Arabic letter.

Example : بَا = Baa

LESSON 6

Standing Fathah

LESSON 6

LET'S DISCUSS STANDING KASRAH (ـِـ)

The second of the long vowels is the standing kasrah.

The difference between standing kasrah and the regular kasrah is that, it is stretched a second longer but has the same "E" sound.

A standing kasrah is a upright line drawn on the bottom of the Arabic letter.

Example : بِ = Bee

LESSON 6

Standing Kasrah (ـِـ)

بِ يِ رِ مِ لِ وِ

LESSON 6

LET'S DISCUSS STANDING DUMMAH (ـٰ)

The third of the long vowels is the standing dummah.

The difference between the standing dummah and the regular dummah is that it is stretched a second longer but has the same "U" sound.

A standing dummah is an inverted و on the top of the Arabic letter.

Example : بٰ = Buu

LESSON 6

Standing Dummah

"Let's start our Seventh Lesson"

What is our seventh lesson?

Our seventh lesson is about Maddah letters

LESSON 7

Letters that cause Madd or prolongation to happen are

ا ى و

THERE ARE 3 MADDAH LETTERS

LESSON 7

ALIF AS MADDAH LETTER (ا)

If there is fathah before alif then the Alif is called alif-maddah, will be pull equal to two harakah or one Alif (duration of alif or two Harakah is two seconds)

Example : بَا = Baa

LESSON 7

Alif as Maddah Letter (ا)

بَا تَا ثَا حَا خَا رَا

LESSON 7

YAA AS MADDAH LETTER (ی)

If there is Kasrah before yaa then the yaa is called yaa-maddah, will be pull equal to two harakah or one Alif (duration of alif / two Harakah is two seconds)

Example : بِیٓ = Yee

LESSON 7

Yaa as Maddah Letter (ی)

بِیْ تِیْ ثِیْ حِیْ خِیْ رِیْ

زِیْ طِیْ ظِیْ فِیْ هِیْ

"Let's start our Ninth Lesson"

Our ninth lesson is about Qalqalah Letters

LESSON 9

THERE ARE 5 QALQALAH LETTERS

The meaning of the word Qalqalah is echo/bouncing back. But in tajweed, it means to make an echoing sound when finding a sukoon sign on any of the five letters of Qalqalah. But remember, the rule doesn't apply unless there is a sukoon sign on the letter.

Jazm or Sukoon · Jazm is the state of a letter without a short vowel. · The symbol for jazm is a small circle, or zero, written above the letter (ْ). Also represented as (ۡ)

"Let's start our Tenth Lesson"

Our tenth lesson is about Tajweed Rules

LESSON 10

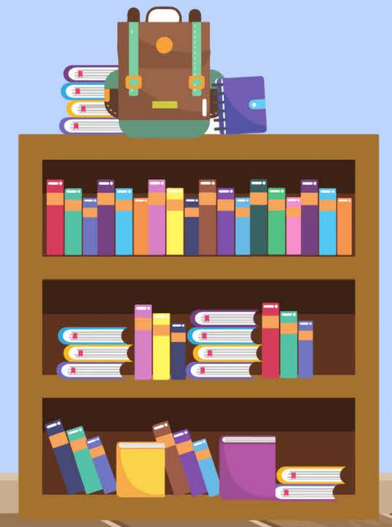

RULES OF NOON SAKIN

Noon Sakin is represented with either a (ـْـ) on top as in مِنْ or without anything as in أَنتَ. As in the first case Noon sound is pronounced clearly IZHAAR without prolongation and in the second case Noon sound is hidden IKHFA and pronounced through the nasal cavity with prolongation of two Harakahs. The rules governing these two cases are as follows.

www.onlinequrantutor.co.uk

1.IZHAAR 2.IDHGHAM 3.IQLAAB 4.IKHFA

LESSON 10

Let's Discuss IZHAAR

Izhaar means to make something clear. When Noon Sakin or Tanween is followed by a Throat letter such as

LESSON 10

RULES OF MEEM SAKIN

Meem Sakin is represented with either a (ـْـ) on top as in مِنْ. The rules of Meem Sakin are as follows:

1.IKHFA SHAFAWI
2.IDHGHAM SHAFAWI
3.IZHAAR SHAFAWI

LESSON 10

Let's Discuss Ikhfa Shafawi

Ikhfaa shafawi means to hide. It is called Shafawi because it is pronounced from the lips. If meem Saakinah is followed by (ب), the reader should hide the Meem Sakin and make Ghunnah of two beats. Ikhfaa shafawi letter is only

ب

LESSON 10

Ikhfa Shafawi

إِنَّ رَبَّهُمْ بِهِمْ ذٰلِكُمْ بِمَا عَلَيْهِمْ بِكَاْسٍ

فَاحْكُمْ بَيْنَهُمْ تَرْمِيهِمْ بِحِجَارَةٍ

سَبَقَكُمْ بِهَا رَبَّهُمْ بِهِمْ عَلَيْهِمْ بِعِلْمٍ

LESSON 10

Let's Discuss Idghaam Shafawi

Idghaam shafawi means to merge.
If Meem Saakinah is followed by (م) then Meem Sakin will merge with the next Meem and will be pronounced with Ghunnah of two beats.
Idghaam shafawi letter is only م

LESSON 10

Idghaam Shafawi

مِنْهُمْ مَّعَرَّةٌ	لَهُمْ مَّغْفِرَةٌ	عَلَيْهِمْ مَّطَرًا

LESSON 10

Let's Discuss Izhaar Shafawi

Izhaar Shafawi means to make clear. If the Meem Saakinah is followed by any letter other than (م & ب), it will be pronounced clearly without Ghunnah.

Izhaar shafawi letters are all letters other than the letters of Ikhfaa shafawi (ب), or Idghaam shafawi (م).

LESSON 12

LET'S DISCUSS TASHDEED WITH GHUNNA

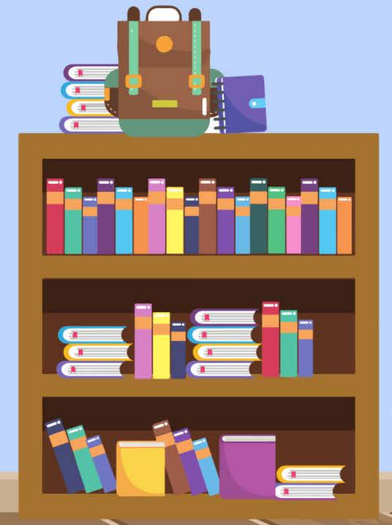

A Noon with tashdeed on top is known as Noon Mushaddad. It must be prolonged the length of two Harakah. نَّ

A Meem with tashdeed on top is known as Meem Mushaddad. It must be prolonged the length of two Harakah. مَّ

Ghunna is when the sound goes to the nose.

The quality of ghunna is present in the letters م and ن.

"Let's start our Fifteenth Lesson"

Our fifteenth lesson is about Maddaat

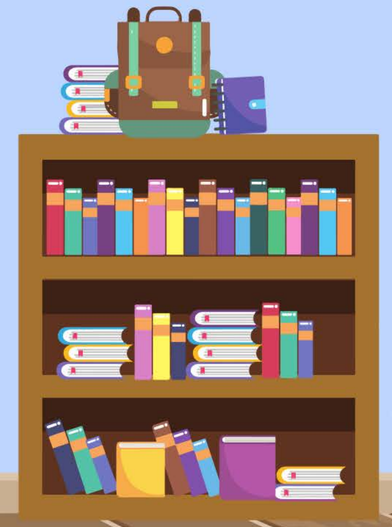

LESSON 15

LET'S DISCUSS MADDAAT

Madd-e-Muttasil:

When a natural or asli madd is followed by a hamza (ء) then a longer Madd occurs. If hamza is in the same word then this Madd is Wajib and known as Mutassil. This Madd must be prolonged for Five Harakah.

Madd-e-Munfasil:

If the hamza is the first letter of the next word then such Madd is Jaaiz and is known as Munfasil.

LESSON 15

Let's Discuss Madd-e-Lazim

If a letter with permament sukoon follows a condition of Madd in the same word then a Lazim Madd occurs.

LESSON 15

"Let's start our Sixteenth Lesson"

Let's discuss Noon Qutni,
Rule of Laam, Muqatt'at letters and
Rule of Raa

LESSON 16

Noon Qutni

The rule is that when there is a Hamzat-ul Wasl coming after a Tanween (Fatha-tain, Kasratain, or Dhammatain), then one of the vowel signs of the Tanween is replaced with a Noon with Kasrah and this is used to join it with the next word.

The word "Noon Qutni" is associated with the small letter Noon seen in the In-do-Pak script of the Qur'an as shown in the following example:

مُبِيۡنِ اقۡتُلُوۡا

اَعُوْذُ بِاللّٰهِ　　سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ　　قُلِ اللّٰهُمَّ

"Let's discuss Muqatt'at letters"

Muqatta'at is a unique letter combination that appears at the beginning of some surahs (chapters) in the Quran. Muqatta'at literally means abbreviated or shortened.

In the Arabic language, these letters are written together like a word, but each letter is pronounced separately.

LESSON 16

Muqatt'at letters

"Let's discuss rule of Raa"

Rule of Raa Saakinah

Raa is originally muraqqaq when it has kasrah harakah.

Muraqqaq (Light letter)

نَاصِرٍ

Raa can also be pronounced as a muffakham when it has dummah or fathah

Muffakham (Heavy letter)

رَبَّنَا

LESSON 16

Examples

LESSON 16

Raa Muffakhamah

The cases of raa saakinah ر + letter with harakah بِرْ بُرْ بَرْ

1. If raa is saakinah and the letter before it has fathah harakah or dammah harakah, raa will be a muffakham letter.

Examples:

وَاَرْسَلَ	تَرْمِيْهِمْ	وَانْحَرْ
وَاذْكُرْ	وَمَنْ يَّشْكُرْ	قُرْاٰنٌ

LESSON 16

Raa Muraqqaq

The cases of raa saakinah ر + letter with harakah رِ رُ رَ

2.If raa is saakinah and the letter before it has kasrah harakah, raa will be a Muraqqaq(light) letter.

Examples:

يَسْتَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ وَاَنْذِرْ وَذَكِّرْ

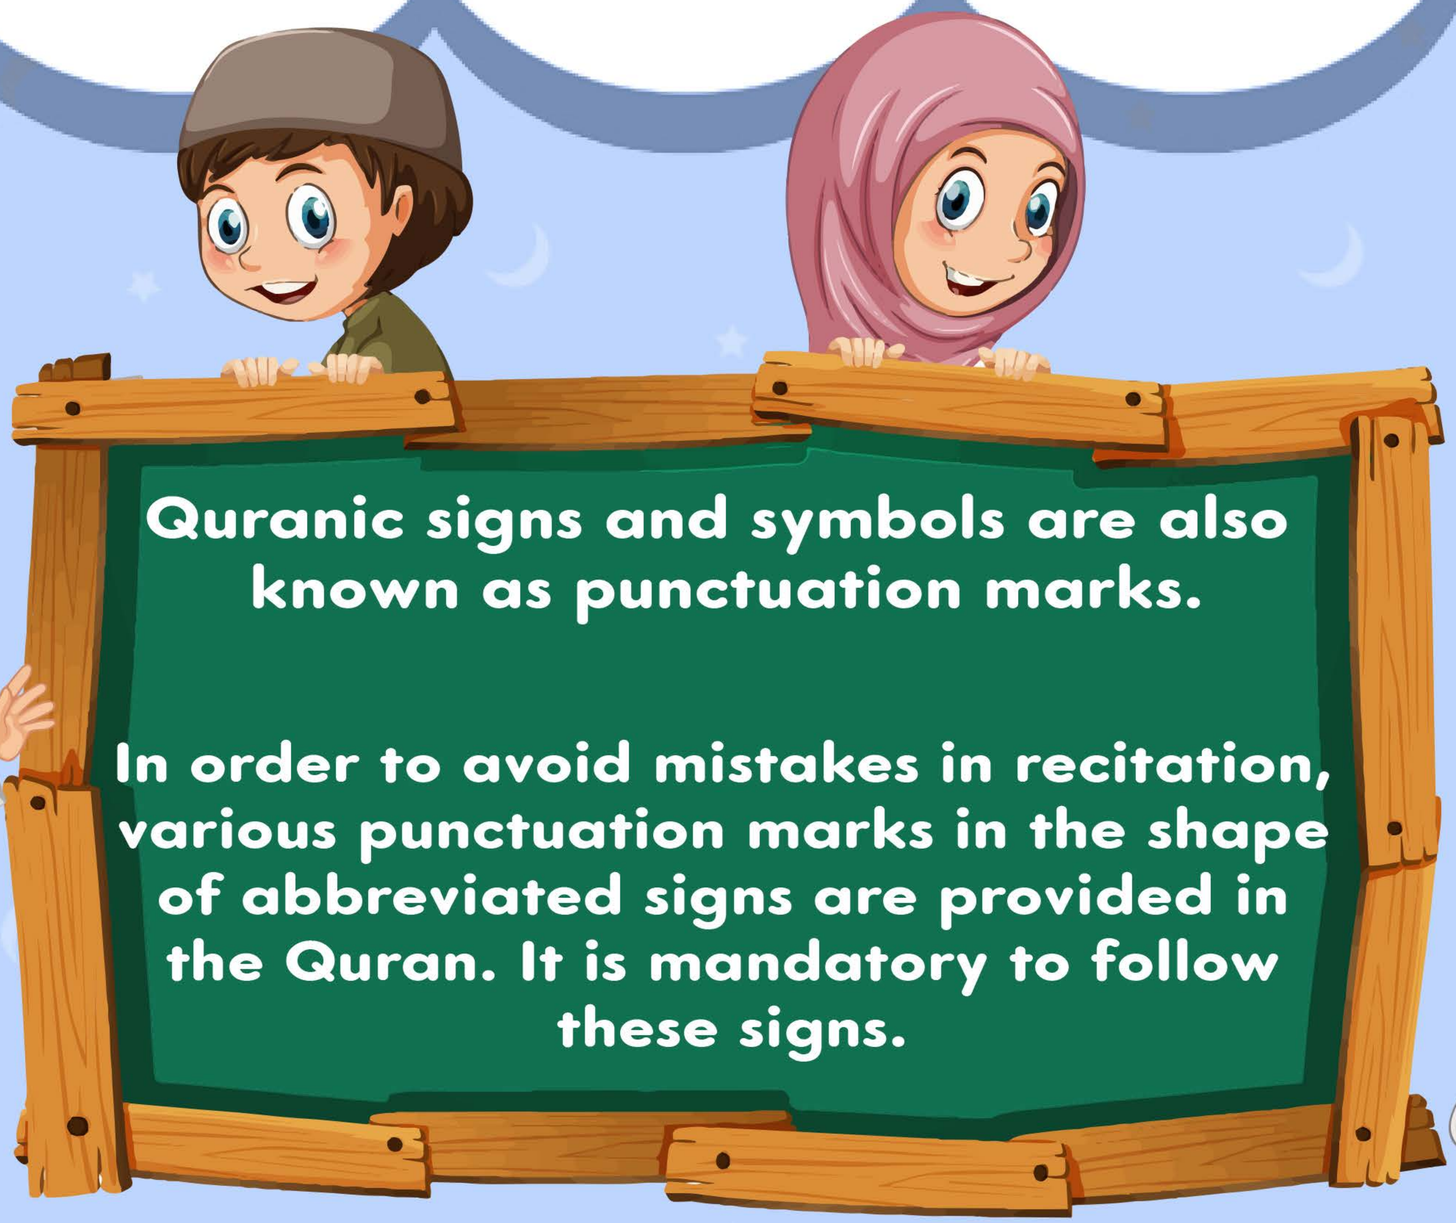

"Let's start our Seventeenth Lesson"

Our Seventeenth Lesson is about Quranic signs and symbols

Quranic signs and symbols are also known as punctuation marks.

In order to avoid mistakes in recitation, various punctuation marks in the shape of abbreviated signs are provided in the Quran. It is mandatory to follow these signs.

LESSON 17

Quranic Signs & Symbols

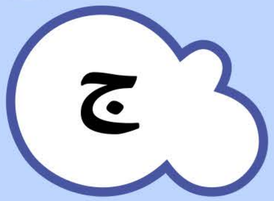

- The Perfect Ptop (الوقف التام):

Waqf-e-Taam' represents the end of a verse. It is indicated by a circle at the conclusion of a Quranic verse. The reciter has to stop here and take a breath before reading further. It marks completion of the message of that sentence.

- Compulsory stop (الوقف اللازم):

When the sign of (م) is seen, you must stop, it is a mandatory stop. If you do not stop, the meanings of the verse get distorted. However, if (م) sign appears above the alphabet (ن) which is followed by the alphabet (ب), like in مِنْ بَعْدِ , the alphabet (ن) should be read as (م). This rule is known as Iqlaab in Tajweed.

- The Permissible Stop (الوقف الجائز):

It points toward completion of the issue in that part of the verse. Thus you can stop here, although it is not obligatory to do so.

- The Permissible Stop (الوقف الجائز):

It means that one can stop or move on, but stopping is preferred.

LESSON 17

Quranic Signs & Symbols

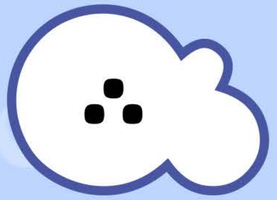

- Stopping Prohibited (الوقف الممنوع):

If لا appear in between the verse, it is mandatory not to stop recitation as it would change the meaning of Quranic verse. However, you can stop when it is used at the end of the verse above the circle mark (الوقف التام) Waqf at-Taam.

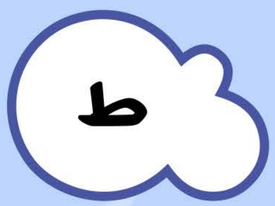

- The Permissible Stop (الوقف الجائز):

It means that one can stop or continue, but continuing is preferred.

- Three Triangular dots (النقط المثلثة):

This means you can stop at one of them, not on both. In the verse (ذَٰلِكَ الْكِتَابُ لَا رَيْبَ ۛ فِيهِ ۛ هُدًى لِّلْمُتَّقِينَ), if you are stopping at (ريب) then you should not stop at (فيه) or vice versa. Remember, you cannot stop at (ريب) and (فيه) both.

- The Recommended stop (الوقف المطلق):

The sign shows the end of a sentence, but not of an argument. It indicates that the reader should discontinue the recitation for an instant by taking breath. It is better to stop here.

Quranic Signs & Symbols

ص

- The Licensed Pause (الوقف المُرَخص):

Waqf-e-Murakh-khas is a symbol that permits the reader to take a break and take a breath, but it is advisable to carry on reading.

ز

- Continue Reading (الوقف المجوز):

It means one does not need to take a pause and continue the recital process, although there is no prohibition on stopping here.

س

- Small Pause (سكتة لطيفة):

At this sign the reader should take a soft/short pause without breaking the breath. Sometime this sign is seen above the alphabet (ص). It means that the (ص) should be pronounced as (س). But if this sign is under the (ص), then the letter (ص) should be pronounced as (ص) only.

ق

- Better not to Stop (قيل عليهِ الوقف):

It is a sign that shows not to stop recitation. However, there are differences of opinions among scholars in this context.
